After doing the showerhead test, what type of showerhead do you have installed?

High Flow

Low Flow

If you ticked High Flow, in the interest of water conservation, are you willing to change your showerhead over to Low Flow? Please tick one of the following.

Yes

No

NOTE: - If you answered "Yes" it is worth knowing that currently, some councils and water authorities are offering a free showerhead exchange program. It is simply a matter of giving them a call to find out if yours is participating. You may need a plumber for installation. Another option is to install a water restrictor that comes in six, eight, ten and twelve litre increments (we suggest you don't go higher than ten).

If you answered "No" and the reason is because you are renting, please consider asking your landlord to change it over for you.
